If yes, then

Are you using appropriate case?

Your password is case sensitive.

Casey1 is not the same as casey1 or CASEY1

Please pay attention to uppercase and lowercase in your passwords. Check to see if your "caps lock" KEY IS ON

If No, then

Correct uppercase or lowercase issue. If you are copy and pasting, often a space gets added in the front or end, count the characters you should have

If yes, then
